THE PRESIDENT CALLED HALT.

President Cleveland's message on the Venezuelan question leaves no room for criticism. It is one of the strongest state papers ever sent to an American Congress by 7th: President of the United States. It is an exhibition of American backbone which every loyal American will applaud, and the President may be assured that the American people will approve taken. He can depend on them to follow him to the fighting point, and then through the fight and on to victory on this important issue.

In vain has this Government sought to secure the consent of Great Britain to submit to arbitration her pretensions in Venezuela. The Venezuelan government has complained to the United States that Great Britain seeks, by force to change the boundary line between Venezuela and British Guiana, and thereby seize a large porover the inhabitants thereof, withtheir consent. To the demand of our Government that the question THE Monroe doctrine is a sort of be submitted to arbitration, Lord Salisbury, the British Prime Minister sends back not only a flat refusal, but denies our right to enforce the Monroe doctrine on this continent. In fact, the reply Government to seize territory in America wherever and whenever ieal territory on this continent or she has the inclination and the power to do so, and declares there is no principle of international law which restrains her in the present instance, or that can check her in

A RESOLUTION has been introduced in Congress by Mr. Barrett, a new Republican member from Massachusetts, to impeach Ambassador Bayard for using the following language in a public speech at Edinburg, Scotland, on Nov.

"In my own country I have witnessed the insatiable growth of that form of State socialism styled protection which I believe has done more to foster class legislation, create inequality of fortune, most heartily the stand he has corrupt public life, banish men of independent minds and character from public councils, blunt public conscience and place politics upon the low level of a mercenary scramble than any other single cause. Step by step and largely owing to the confusion of civil strife, it has succeeded in obtaining control of the sovereign power of taxation, creating the revinue into an engine of selfish and private profit. Its allied beneficiaries and combines are called "trusts," and gradually the commercial marine tion of her territory, and extend of the United States has disappearthe British system of Government ed, the few vessels lately built being an exception and proving the rule, as they were only built by making a breach in the general tariff and navigation laws.

"It is incorrect to speak of protection as a national policy. That could never be, it will never be anything but the fostering of special interests at the expense of claims the right for the British the rest. It is fatal to hopes of advancement or even to the retention of what has been gained by civilization."

> A dispatch dated at Washington, Dec. 24th, says the Senate made a Christmas present to the South, as Mr. Hill of New York, aptly characterized the bill repealing prospective disabilities, passed at close of the war, against the service of ex-confederates in the United States army or navy.
